

AUG 20 1960

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00

FOIAb3b

U-2 Designer, 2 Others to Get V. E. W. Medals

DETROIT, Aug. 19 (AP). —

The high-flying U-2 spy plane may have brought grief to Francis Gary Powers in the Soviet Union but the man who designed it and two men closely associated with its military operations will get medals next week at Detroit from the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their national convention.

The Gen. H. H. (Hap) Arnold Award of the V. E. W. will go to U-2 designer Clarence L. Johnson, vice - president of Lockheed Aircraft Corp., as "the individual judged to have contributed most outstandingly in the field of aviation."

The Bernard Baruch Gold Medal will go to Allen W. Dulles for "outstanding service as a diplomat and especially in recognition of his efficient directorship of the United States Central Intelligence Agency, which has contributed immeasurably to national security and toward more effective unity with our allies."

Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. is to get the Americanism Gold Medal Award "in recognition of his outstanding leadership, which has inspired new high levels of proficiency and a truly dynamic application of Americanism principles throughout the armed forces of our nation."

CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

Designer of the U-2 To Get V. P. W. Medal

DETROIT, Aug. 19 (AP)

The man who designed the U-2 plane and two men closely associated with its military operations will get medals in Detroit next week at the Veterans of Foreign Wars national convention.

The organization's Gen. H. H. (Har) Arnold Award will go to Clarence L. Johnson, vice president of Lockheed Aircraft corporation, as "the individual judged to have contributed most outstandingly in the field of aviation." Mr. Johnson designed the craft.

The Bernard Baruch Gold Medal will go to Allen W. Dulles "in recognition of his efficient directorship of the United States Central Intelligence Agency which has contributed immeasurably to national security and toward more effective unity with our allies."

Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. is to get the group's Americanism Gold Medal Award "in recognition of his outstanding leadership . . . and a truly dynamic application of Americanism principles throughout the armed forces of our nation."

CPYRGHT